17th Annual Arthur M. Follenweider Scholarship Golf Outing

Chicago Midwest Meat Association

The Chicago Midwest Meat Association is pleased to announce its 2010 scholarship winners. Ten students will receive a one-year scholarship awards to be applied toward their educational expenses for the 2010-2011 academic school year. This scholarship is renewable for their continued education at a four year college as long as they maintain a B average or better and supply the association with the necessary paperwork.

To assure complete impartiality in the selection of winners and to maintain a high level of professionalism the CMMA employs a professor from the University of Chicago to select its winners.

Thank you to all the loyal supporters who participated in our annual Arthur M. Follenweider Golf Outing. Your support and participation made our 17th Annual Golf Outing another huge success.

Special thanks to all the students who applied and our heartfelt congratulations and best wishes to all of our scholarship winners.

Renewal Applicants for 2010-2011

Shannon Rohn
Mesirow Financial

Shannon spent her first semester at College of DuPage and her second semester at Marquette University.

Three of her history papers were entered into a college-wide history contest and she was a recipient of the Carter D. Carroll History Award. She has declared Political Science and Sociology as her majors. She feels as if college has made her a more well-rounded individual.

Anamarie Hosu
Rose Packing Co.

Anamarie just finished her sophomore year at Loyola University. Pursuing her nursing degree proved to be monumental. The knowledge she accumulated this past year she is now confident in her ability to perform clinical rotations in the fall. In order to stay well informed in the health care field she became involved in the Student Nurses Association.

Steven Adent
Scott Peterson

Steven just finished his junior year at Southern Illinois University. He made the Dean's list both semesters with straight A's. Became a volunteer for the Makanda Township Fire Department and is trying to attain his Fire Fighter II Certification. He feels as if he has not only gained in the academic realm, but also in experience.

Meghana Joshi
Lincoln Provisions

Meghana just finished her sophomore year at University of Illinois at Urbana. She joined the Pre-Law Honors Society at the beginning of the year and went on to become the Director of Special Programming. The experiences she gained this past year have provided her with numerous skills and beliefs that have made her the person that she is today.

Julie Adams
Ed Miniati

Julie just finished her junior year at Saint Xavier University. She took a rigorous course schedule and maintained a 4.0 GPA. She is pursuing a marketing degree with a minor in organizational communication. Julie recognizes that her active involvement on-campus and her drive to go above and beyond the norm have furthered her college experience.

Steven Murphy
Mesirow Financial

Steven has just completed his first year at the University of Chicago. Besides for balancing a varsity sport (football) and pledging a fraternity, Steven also found time to hold down a job at the Ratner Athletic Center. He took mainly core classes his first year, but is looking forward to sophomore year when he can start concentrating on his major sequence of Economics. He is really looking forward to going back in the fall.
